3. Розвиток читацьких навичок

- You know, we can say that the Queen is a symbol of GB. There are also many other famous people. So, the following task for you is "Guess who was who!" You should put the parts of the story in the right order, read them and tell us what famous person this text is about. If the team finishes first it will get a circle.

- Let's check your order of the text.

4. He was one of the world's greatest writers. He was born on April 23, 1564 in England. His mother was the daughter of a farmer. His father was a glove-maker.

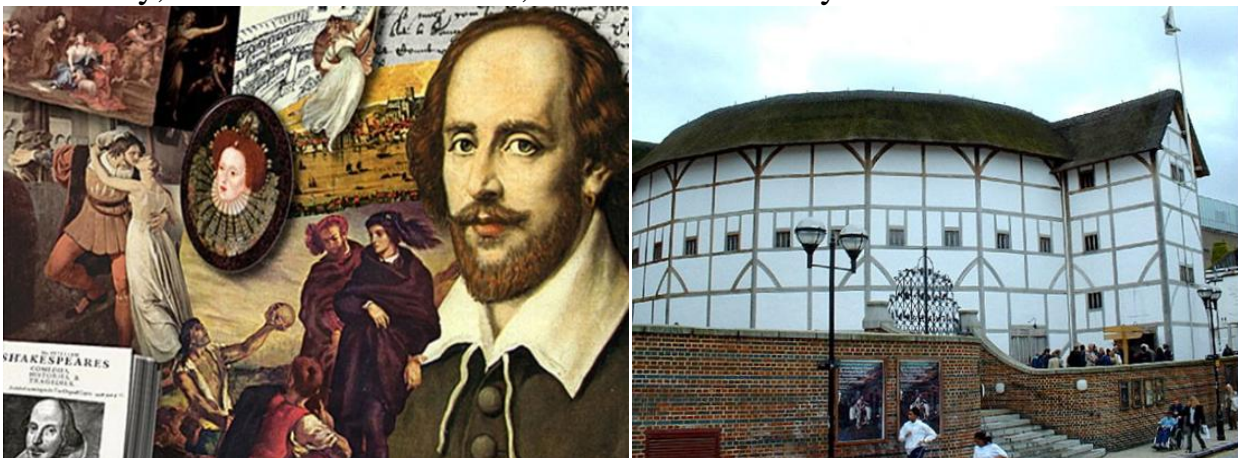

1. He went to a grammar school and had quite a good education. There he learned to love reading. His school was a difficult place at that time. School days were long, and only on the holidays he could have a real rest.

3. While still a teenager, he married Anne Hathaway, a farmer's daughter some years older than himself. They had three children. When he was twenty-one he went to London, leaving Anne and the children at home.

5. In London he began to act and to write plays and soon became an important member of a well-known acting company. He wrote plays for the famous Globe Theatre. Later he was one of the owners of the Globe Theatre.

2. In 1613 he stopped writing and went to live in his native town where he died in 1616. He wrote three types of plays: histories, comedies and tragedies. Four hundred years later his plays are still acted — not only in England but in the whole world.

- Surely, this text is about a man, not a woman. Can you tell us his name?

- Yes, his name is William Shakespeare.

- Can you guess what building is this? (The Globe theatre)
